Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo

Qualifications, Duty Expectations & Entry Form

Upon winning the title of Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo, the titleholder becomes the official representative for the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo, and as such, is responsible to present the sport of rodeo in its true light to the general public. She must strive to represent exceptional sportsmanship, high moral and ethical character and humane treatment of animals.

We wish to point out that this is not a beauty contest. Rather, it is a competition that recognizes a number of attributes; horsemanship, personality, salesmanship, public speaking, and appearance. Therefore, as our official representative, she is under the responsibility to act, speak, and dress accordingly to the esteem the title deserves anytime she is in the public eye. As riding and horsemanship skills are key to the promotion of the sport of rodeo, we encourage striving to improve these skills.

1. Contestants must reside in Cowlitz, Clark, Lewis, Thurston, Skamania, Columbia, or Wahkiakum County. Residency is defined as your permanent address where you physically live the majority of the year.
2. Contestants must be 17 years of age as of January 1, 2023 and must not be older than 24 years of age by the date of the competition/pageant.
3. Contestant shall NOT be, nor BECOME betrothed or have any marital obligations during her reign as Queen. Also, contestant shall NOT be, nor BECOME pregnant during her reign, or have had children previous to trying out. Contestant must be either enrolled in school or have successfully completed high school with a diploma or equivalent.
4. The titleholder may not compete for any other honorary position that will interfere with her activities during her reign.
5. The titleholder must furnish a suitable horse. MUST NOT BE A STALLION. The selected horse should be well mannered and groomed at all times. The queen coordinator will determine if the horse and equipment is acceptable. If not, the titleholder must be willing to provide a horse and provide equipment that qualifies.
6. It is the responsibility of the titleholder and/or her family (i.e. parents) to provide transportation of the horse, and all necessary items for the required appearances.
7. As a contestant and as the titleholder, she would be expected to conduct herself properly at all times. At no time will drugs or alcohol be consumed while representing the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo. Also the smoking of cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, and any other use of tobacco is prohibited. REMEMBER, a first impression is most often the most memorable.
8. The titleholder will receive a tiara, parade flowers, belt buckle, sash, chaps and serape. A clothing allowance of $450.00 will also be awarded.
9. As titleholder, it is her responsibility to wear her banner and crown any time she is acting in her official capacity. She should also be fully dressed in western-style cowboy boots; long sleeve, form-fitting blouse or shirt, with shirt-tail tucked in; western style pants and buckle before arrival to the admission of a gate of a rodeo. She should never arrive at a rodeo or any function wearing sweats, shorts, halter tops, tank tops, etc. She should always make sure her clothing is clean and pressed; hat blocked and cleaned, hair curled and styled, makeup suitable for the event, and wear appropriate dress for the occasion. Clothing may be subject to the approval of the queen coordinator. Attire deemed as unacceptable must be changed upon request.

---CLOTHING SUGGESTIONS---

RODEO COMMITTEE MEETINGS-nice neat casual western attire

LUNCHEONS-western style dress or skirt

PARADES-western style jeans, chaps, and long sleeve form fitting blouse or jacket

SPONSOR VISIT-western style dress or skirt

SCHOOL, REST HOME, OR SENIOR CENTER-western style dress or skirt

RODEO GRAND ENTRIES-western style jeans, chaps, and arena shirt

10. No titleholder or contestant may have been convicted of any crime prior to competing for Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo or incur any such conviction during her reign as queen.
11. As Queen she is expected to attend the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo committee meetings, although we do realize schooling, work schedules, etc., might interfere. She will have to be available for the two weeks preceding the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo for daily to multiple daily appearances. She also must attend all official functions during the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo.
12. Professional and appropriate conduct is required at all times while representing or competing for Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo. Respectful treatment of all sponsors, committee members, volunteers, contestants, and the general public is expected. Unsportsmanlike conduct, profanity, and or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and is subject to dismissal.
13. The titleholder and contestants must portray themselves, the sport of rodeo, and the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo organization in a positive manner. Social media posts or content that is detrimental to the image of the mentioned entities is unacceptable and must be removed.
14. If a titleholder refuses to carry out the Duties and Expectations for this title, she will be immediately removed and replaced by the first runner up. She will not be entitled to keep any items provided.
15. The Rodeo Board will award Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo a $300.00 academic scholarship, providing she is accepted and enrolled in a state university, community college, or trade school upon completion of her reign. The scholarship will be paid to the school upon notification of meeting entrance and attendance requirements.
16. A Coronation and/or Fundraiser may be held to help with expenses. This event, as well as any personal sponsorships, will be discussed and planned with the Queen Coordinator. Belt Buckle is sponsored by our Queen sponsor Western World, you will be reimbursed up to $150.00
17. A liability insurance policy, covering all events that Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo attends, will be required. The payment of the premium for this policy will be the responsibility of the titleholder. The Queen Coordinator will discuss this further with the successful candidate.

18. A "Queen" checking account (separate from any personal accounts) must be set up for the year you are Miss Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo. All income and expenses must be provided in a detailed yearend report. Acceptable expenses will be discussed further with the successful candidate.

I HAVE CAREFULLY READ THE AFOREMENTIONED STATEMENTS AND ACCOMPANYING "WAIVER OF LIABILITY" AND FULLY UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE TERMS THEREIN.

Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen Waiver of Liability Form

In consideration of any application being accepted for participation in the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen Pageant, I hereby agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Committee and the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen pageant and understand that any violation of the rules and regulations may disqualify me from participation.

I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless committee members, agents, and employees or any of the contestants in the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen Pageant, together with those persons and entities who donate horses, floats, trailers, and vehicles for use by myself and other contestants from any claims resulting from the loss, accident, or injury received by me in connection with participation by me in any event, performance, parade, or other activity.

I also agree to indemnify and hold harmless committee members, agents, and employees of the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo for the entire term of my reign, if I am chosen as the titleholder for all of the previously noted reasons of loss, accident, or injury, as well as any decisions made regarding the title of Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen.

This Waiver Agreement will remain in force not only for the pageant, but also from the time the titleholder is announced through the holdover period as Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen Elect, and then through the term as the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen. Also, I hereby release the right, title and claim of any photographs that may be taken by the Thunder Mountain Rodeo Committee for use in promotion and publicity.

I certify that I have read the rules and regulations of the Thunder Mountain Pro Rodeo Queen Pageant. Except as modified by this waiver, the Expectation Statement Form remains in full force and effect.
